

Name _____

Read the story.Follow the directions.

Walking to School

by Kam Sueng Lee

I like to walk to school. My town in Korea is so small that I know everyone. On my way to school, I stop to say “Hi” to many people. Sometimes I am late for school! Every day when I meet Mr. Kim, I always bow to him. That is a sign of respect. Sometimes Mr. Kim gives me a treat from his store. He says maybe it will help me get to school faster!

1. Circle the name of the author.
2. Circle the words below that tell what the story is all about.
city schools life in Korea grocery stores
3. Underline three words in the story that tell about the place where Kam lives.
4. Write a sentence that tells one thing in Kam’s life that is different from yours.

5. Write a sentence telling why you think the author wrote this story.

Home Activity Your child wrote about a first-person account and told why the person wrote it. Select a book or magazine about a different country. As you read the selection together, ask your child to identify the author and say why he or she wrote the article or story.